The holiest we enter
In perfect peace with God,
Through whom we found our centre
In Jesus and His blood:
Though great may be our dullness
In thought and word and deed,
We: glory in the fullness
Of Him that meets our need.
Much incense is ascending
Before the eternal throne;
God graciously is bending
To here each feeble groan;
To all our prayers and praises
Christ adds His sweet perfume,
And love the censer raises,
These odors to consume.
O God, we come with singing,
Because Thy pent High-Priest
Our names to Thee is bringing,
Nor ever forgets the least:
For us He wears the miter,
Where holiness shines bright
For us His robes are whiter
Than heaven's unsullied light.+
